Items from members in attendance:

Mavis spoke in regard to the float they make for Winter Wonderland. They will be doing something new to keep it weighted down and less prone to being blown about in the wind.

Players from the Intermediate/Advanced group asked if there was a way to keep the same level of competition or make a change so that games would be played with like ability players. They are experiencing different levels of play during the times they come to play. They would like to have more competitive games.

It was asked why score was not kept at Saturday Structure play.

Rating was discussed.

King's Court was discussed as a way to make play more competitive.

Beginners are welcome to join a group which meets Fridays at 10am and Monday at 1pm

KING'S COURT:

It was decided to try King's Court on Friday mornings. 3 courts will be allocated for this. The other 3 courts will be for open play. Rules to come later.

OTHER ITEMS FROM MEMBERS:

A new member was looking for play from 6-8pm. 12-3pm on Sundays 4 courts are allocated for play.

Short nets between courts to avoid balls from other courts. This was discussed and tabled. Could fall over them.
Different ways to find games was discussed.
Cost of new outdoor nets was discussed. Indoor net request for rolling nets next time they are purchased.
Discussion of early morning play times discussed. The board does not have any control over any play times other than MOU/SUG times. Learn to share the courts with the rest of the population.

FALL TOURNAMENT:

Date set for Sept 28-29

Entry fee same as last year: $35 member /$45 non-member Open first to members, then will be opened to non-members.
